Overview

The Venetian has an elegant, 39-table, non-smoking room that's arguably the nicest on the Strip. The semi-enclosed room, located near the sportsbook and Players Club, is decorated with luxurious wood and leather fixtures, 21 large screen plasma televisions, crystal chandeliers and comfortable waiting area with large leather sofas. There's a separate high stakes area in which 7 of the tables are located.

The Venetian offers limit (4/8 and up), NL (1/2 and up) and mixed games regularly. some of the better daily tournaments on the Strip and, during the WSOP, a series of deep stake tournaments that are highly popular alternatives to WSOP events. Waitlists are automated and easily visible from the waiting area.

The room's tables have auto-shufflers, drink holders and a tan felt that some might find unusual, and the adjustable, wheeled chairs are very comfortable. The tables have plenty of room between them; on quiet days the room can feel more vacant than it is, but it never feels crowded even on the busiest days.

The Venetian offers some of the most generous comps on the Strip ($1+/hour) and room rates of $169 weekdays and $259 weekends.
